

MEDIA RELEASE

12 April 2006

MOONAH LINKS APPOINTS NEW DIRECTOR OF GOLF

Moonah Links Golf Resort, is pleased to announce the appointment of Wayne Buchanan as Director of Golf.

Mr. Buchanan, an experienced manager who has worked in Australia, the United States, Egypt and Jakarta, was most recently manager of Northlakes Resort Golf Club, on Queensland's Sunshine Coast. He has been trained in Business Management, Hotel Management, and Food & Beverage Management, as well as undertaking four years' training with the Australian PGA and three years with the US PGA.

Wayne will be responsible for planning and directing the operations of the golf complex's two courses - the Open & the Legends courses, overseeing all variables that can affect customer satisfaction, including playing conditions, pace of play, golf shop and clubhouse services. He will also be involved in all aspects of the golf business.

Located just 90 minutes from Melbourne on Victoria's scenic Mornington Peninsula, Moonah Links comprises two world-class courses – The Open, designed by Peter Thomson, and The Legends course – plus a fully integrated Pavilion with change rooms, bag storage, restaurants, bars, tennis courts, heliport, outdoor heated swimming pool, conference facilities and a viewing deck.

Moonah Links also includes a residential development of 250 home-sites on more than 242 hectares, with land, houses, villas and apartments available.

A Peppers-managed resort, offering 92 rooms and conference facilities, is a further facet of the Moonah Links development. The three new lodges are now open for business.

The three, two storey lodges are positioned with stunning views over the 1st fairway of the complex's Open Course. Measuring approximately 1,000 square metres, each lodge features twelve spacious executive-style suites, generous common living - dining area and terraces taking in the expansive views of the surrounding landscape. All buildings will be equipped with wireless connectivity and state of the art conference facilities making them ideal for both corporate and leisure patrons. Each lodge can be transformed seamlessly to multi-purpose conference facilities for up to 100 people.

Moonah Links now offers one of the largest conference facilities in Victoria, outside of the Melbourne CBD. The Lodges are ideal for leisure or business hire.

Media: for more information call Kathy Doherty 0403 131 821 or go to www.moonahlinks.com.au